What to bring

- ☐ A valid, current U.S. Passport
- ☐ Sleeping bag, pillow & camping pad
- ☐ Warm clothes for cold nights
- ☐ Comfortable clothes for relaxing at camp & in San Diego
- ☐ Work clothes that can get dirty or ruined
 - Long pants
 - Short sleeve shirts (but no tank tops)
 - Sturdy closed-toed shoes
- ☐ Work gloves
- Tools are not necessary but hammer, pencil, and "square" are nice to have
- ☐ Water bottle
- ☐ Sunscreen (A hat is a big help too!)
- ☐ Towel & toiletries (soap, shampoo, etc.)
- ☐ "Sun Shower" from sporting goods store (recommended)
- ☐ Modest swim suit for showers
- ☐ Flashlight (we also recommend a headlamp flashlight)
- ☐ Bible & pencil
- ☐ Cash for 4 meals on the road (and a little extra for souvenirs, if desired)
- ☐ Large trash bags to pack dirty clothes
- ☐ Rain poncho (just in case!)
- ☐ Cell Phone? We are okay with you bringing them to keep in touch with parents. The goal of the trip is to unplug from technology. CPC is not responsible for lost, broken or stolen phones.

What NOT to bring

- ☐ Too much stuff! (Please pack light- you need to be able to carry it!)
- ☐ Large or hard-sided luggage (space under the bus is very limited)
- ☐ Large inflatable mattress or cots! (there is no room in your tent for an aero bed), just buy a nice camping pad instead.

And of course...

- ☐ NO drugs
- ☐ NO alcohol
- ☐ NO cigarettes
- ☐ NO weapons of any kind
- ☐ NO bad attitude
