

Football Sunday // Shoulder to Shoulder
February 2 & 3, 2020 // Tyler Scott & Jeremiah Ramer

INTRODUCTION

This special weekend was specifically designed as a fun atmosphere where you could invite friends and family members who may not otherwise come to church. Our hope is that you had some fun with your church family, but most of all, we pray you were inspired by the powerful testimonies and life lessons that were shared.

1. What was the most meaningful testimony you heard? Why?
2. The first video challenged us to ask “What role does God play in your life? How would you answer this question?”
3. We saw a testimony from the Watson’s. They shared a difficult season where they asked the question “How can God be good if _____?”
 - a. What would you write in this blank?

5. We heard a testimony from a man named Prince. He shared how he was raised that if he was a good person, he was ok. He talked about how he would compare himself to others, and as long as he was better than them, he was good. But when he heard about Jesus, he changed into a follower of Jesus.
 - a. Talk as a group about the difference between “being good” and being a “follower”.
6. What was your biggest take-away from Football Sunday?
